Quote As a worship leader and musician Dave exhibits an extremely high skill level as a pianist and guitarist, and an easy voice to listen to and engage with in worship. I have seen him work successfully with both professional musicians and church volunteers. David has the ability to put every one at ease while maintaining a high level of musicianship. David is also a song writer and arranger who has many published and recorded worship songs. His songs are marked by easily singable melodies with thoughtful and biblical lyrics.

I would consider Dave a scholar and theologian particularly in the field of worship. His thirst for the word and desire to represent Christ in his daily life act as an umbrella to all of what he does. In short, he lives out what he teaches. I would give Dave my highest recommendation
